FOREWORD

In presenting this volume of the PAC-SAC, we have endeavored to vary the book that each student might find within its pages a portrayal of that phase of college life which appeals to him. We hope that this book will be a source of many happy hours in the years to come as its pages are scanned and recollections of college days are freshened in our memory; and love for Alma Mater strengthened.

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of an annual is to portray school life, and that purpose was always kept in mind as this volume was being prepared. Usually editors delve into past histories for a theme, but that is not true in this case. In this volume of the PAC-SAC only those things will be found that go to make up the student life of Presbyterian College

ALMA MATER

'Mong Piedmont hills of old S. C.
There stands a college called P. C.
She's dear to me, this old P. C.
Where every day is happy.

(Chorus)

P. C., P. C., how dear thou art to me,
P. C., P. C., we'll e'er be true to thee,
P. C., P. C., we'll ever sing thy praise,
We'll sing thy praise through all our days,
All hail to thee.

All honor to thy learned walls,
Thy campus and historic halls,
We'll sing thy praise through all our days,
Our well loved Alma Mater.

ADMINISTRATION

The unit of the R. O. T. C. maintained by the United States government at Presbyterian College ranks as one of the outstanding units of the Fourth Corps Area. Under the direction of Captain R. E. Wysor, Jr., who completes his fifth year as P. M. S. & T. at the college and has received notification that he will be in charge another year, the unit has been greatly improved. For the past four years it has been rated "Excellent" at the annual government inspection, and P. C. cadets wear blue stars on the right sleeves in recognition of this efficiency.

A battalion of infantry, consisting of three, two-platoon companies, is the present organization. For the past two years the battalion has been commanded by a cadet Lieutenant-Colonel, appointed the second semester, with a cadet Major as executive officer.

Although the 1934 inspection has not been held, indications are that the unit will maintain its high rating and continue as a credit to the institution and to Captain Wysor and Captain Blanton.

COACH WALTER A. JOHNSON

The director of athletics at a small college must be a first-class coach in at least three sports, a business man and master of high finance to make the ends of a short athletic budget meet, an efficiency expert to keep various student managers and an athletic plant operating at top speed, a diplomat to keep his department on peaceful terms with sundry other interests, a publicity man of the first water to get the newspaper space that leads to the all-important "gate," and a mathematical genius who can always have at his fingertips the outlines of five or six incomplete schedules and can line them all up without a conflict. Outside of these accomplishments, the only other requirement is that he be a pretty fair solicitor of funds with which to patch out a depleted budget or to keep alive, and improve, the athletic department at his school.

A man who fulfills every one of these requirements and has time left over to be a prince of a fellow is Coach Walter A. Johnson, Presbyterian College's Director of Athletics.

For twenty years "Coach" has guided the destinies of P. C. athletic teams. At times during that period he has coached football, boxing, basket-ball, track, baseball, and gymnastics—all with marked success. Now he coaches only football, boxing and baseball, while handling the multitudinous duties of athletic director.

We take off our hats to Coach Johnson, the man who can do—and does—a little bit of everything well. His prolific genius has carved out for P. C. a place in the athletic sun, and has kept her there.

COACH L. S. McMILLIAN

The reason for Presbyterian College's track supremacy is Coach Lonnie McMillian.

In 1914 he came here as a student; and after finishing his college course, he coached a few years at Clinton High School; at the same time lending spare time assistance to Coach Johnson.

"Lonnie Mac" returned to his Alma Mater as head track and basket-ball and freshman coach. He has been here ever since and has specialized in building championship track teams that have captured state honors five times in seven years and have never finished further back than second. His teams have won two S. I. A. A. championships, and took second in 1931.

Indispensible to P. C.'s athletic department, Coach McMillian does his work well but with little show.

Hugh L. Eichelberger is another P. C. Alumnus who has given valuable service to his Alma Mater as athlete and coach.

"Ike," as he is familiarly known, was All-State tackle for two seasons, and in recent years has been a line coach approaching All-American calibre. He has taken charge of the line, which allowed Coach Johnson to devote full time to the development of the backfield.

His able coaching has been the most outstanding single factor in building up the staunch defense that always characterizes Presbyterian teams.

P. C.—CLEMSON

Playing a typical early season brand of football, the Presbyterian Blue Hose allowed a cocky Clemson eleven to climax a third-quarter drive with a touchdown and earn a tie in the first game of the 1933 season. The final score was 6-6.

Clemson took up the defensive early in the game, stopping Blue Stocking drives successfully until in the second quarter when two passes functioned perfectly for the Hose to score. Captain Sims recovered a Clemson fumble on the Tiger twenty-two yard line. Perrin, on a beautifully executed spinner, carried the ball to the Clemson two-yard line. Failing in three thrusts at the line, Perrin passed over the goal to Forehand, who, playing his first varsity game, leaped high in the air from the midst of a throng of Clemson players to snare it.

Clemson scored on a long drive in the third period, but following the tally, the game was again all in favor of the Hosemen. But the scoring for that day had been completed, and the second P. C.-Clemson deadlock in as many years went down in the books.

P. C.—LENOIR-RHYNE

In their only night appearance of the season, the Blue Stockings unleashed a power drive in the final minute of play to push over a tally and tie the Lenoir-Rhyne Bears in a hotly-contested game at Hickory, N. C.

Presbyterian made ten first downs to Lenoir-Rhyne's eight, but spectacular play by Newton and Padgett kept the Hose out of scoring territory most of the contest. "Shorty" Horne kicked the goal that made the final score 7-7.

Lenoir-Rhyne scored in the third period and kicked extra point to take the lead. They held this lead until, with only a few minutes to play, Higbe, Bolick and Perrin started a drive from the fifty-yard stripe that ended in a touchdown. Perrin sprinted the last ten yards for the score and crossed the line standing up.

Captain Bob Sims was the backbone of his team's defense, backing up the line so well that the Bears were forced into the air for most of their advances.

P. C.—HOWARD

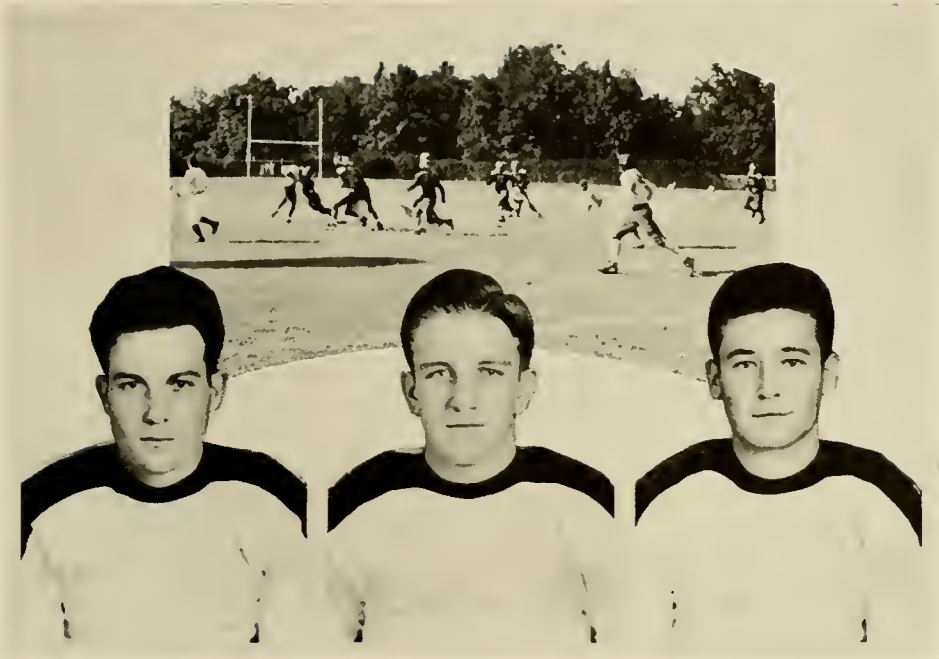

For P. C. supporters a solace for the 13-0 defeat suffered at the hands of Howard College was the startling performance of "Robbie" Robinson at tackle.

Called upon to fill the shoes of Jess Tolbert who was taken from the game with an injured shoulder, the huge tackle demonstrated that he had what it takes by literally tearing the opposing forward wall into bits, and stopping every attempt made to gain through his side of the line.

A sophomore backfield, composed of Wilbanks, Quarterman, Holliday and Denny, turned in a fourth quarter performance that makes us believe this quartet will be heard from in the future.

After failing to advance on straight football, Howard opened a passing attack that was good for two touchdowns. The first pass went over the line into the arms of Everett. Macomber passed.

The second score came as the result of another heave, this time from Ewing to Everett, which put the ball on the one-yard line. Ewing went over on the first try. The try for point was blocked.

DENNY

P. C.—WOFFORD

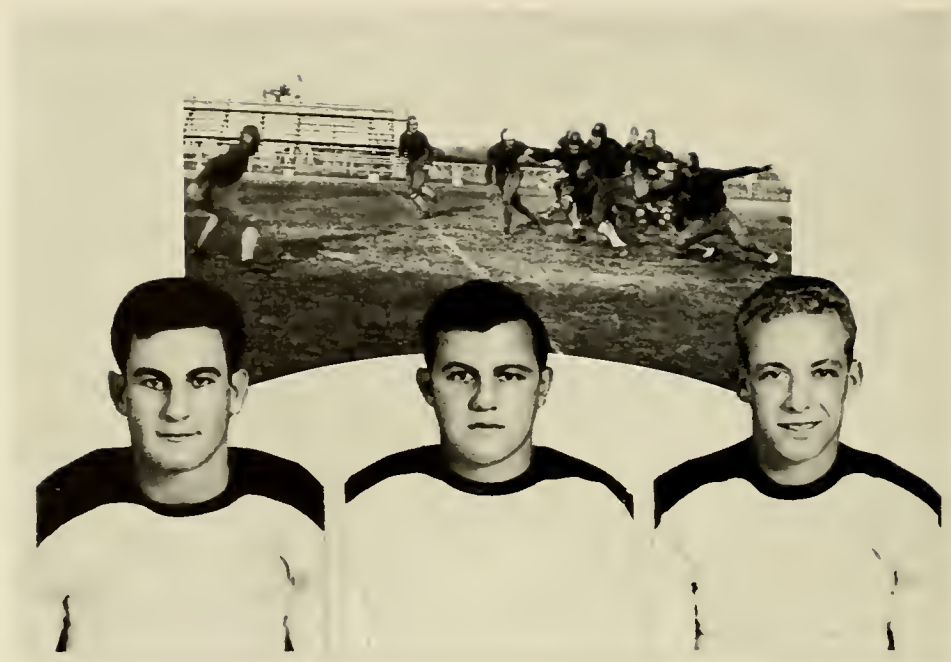

Completely outclassing the Methodists, the Blue Stockings ran up a score of 26-6 against Wofford in Spartanburg.

A pass from Perrin to Yearout accounted for the first score, Yearout dashing twenty-six yards for the promised land. The Hose threatened throughout the remainder of the period but were unable to score.

Perrin intercepted a pass in mid-field, and behind perfect blocking, raced down the sideline for the second touchdown, soon after the opening of the second half. Later in the same period, Denny, on a fake reverse and the most perfectly executed play of the season, slipped off his right tackle for thirty yards and a touchdown. Not a restraining hand was laid on the P. C. back during the play.

Yearout figured later when he caught Anderson on the ten-yard stripe, after the latter had received a pass in mid-field and was headed for what appeared to be a sure touchdown. The final Presbyterian score came when Wilbanks passed fifteen yards to Perrin, who ran the remaining five yards.

Wofford scored as the result of a baffling pass attack.

HIGBE

P. C.—CITADEL

At Charleston it took a Citadel touchdown to arouse the Presbyterians to a fighting temper; but, once aroused, the Hosemen were unstoppable and shoved over a touchdown and extra point in short order to defeat the cadets, 7-6.

The game was well played on both sides, the Citadel score coming late in the third period, when Quarterman passed to Faulkner at the goal line. Reeder, spectacular little guard, saved the day for the Hose by blocking the try for point.

It was then that the Blue Stockings showed their mettle, with Higbe starting the scoring march with a spectacular twenty-five yard punt return. Perrin, attempting to pass on fourth down, could not find a receiver and raced around his left end for twenty-one yards. Higbe went around the other end for the remaining six yards and the tally. Horne's placement chalked up for his team the extra point that spelled victory.

HARVIN

HOLLIDAY

P. C.—NEWBERRY

Evidently suffering a let down after two sterling performances, the Blue Stockings played a listless brand of football to allow a heads-up and hard-driving team from Newberry hand them a 16-7 defeat in the Home-Coming game.

Newberry, led by Beck, drove sixty yards for its first touchdown, showing an amazing variety of plays that threw the Hosemen off their guard.

However, in the second quarter, the Presbyterians opened up a sustained drive that netted fifty yards, with Perrin, who carried the ball all but eleven yards of the way, going over for the score.

Beck, in the third quarter, ran twenty-eight yards for the second Indian touchdown. A safety in the last period ended the scoring.

P. C.'s star of the game, defensively speaking, was Captain Bob Sims, who did a bang-up job of backing up the line.

P. C.—ERSKINE

Alertness in taking advantage of the breaks, plus an undeniable touchdown drive, enabled the Blue Stockings to win over Erskine, 21-0, at Due West and redeem themselves for the Newberry defeat a week earlier.

In this game, Waldrep, lanky flankman, broke into the scoring column by running thirty-five yards with an intercepted pass for the second touchdown of the day.

Holliday recovered Whiteside's fumble for the first score and Bolick led a drive in the third quarter for the final counter.

Two players who had been on the sidelines for most of the season stepped out to give sterling performances. Quarterman did most of the kicking for the day and converted all three extra points. Redmond broke away for several nice gains in the fourth quarter. He was the only Presbyterian back to gain consistently during the time he was in the game.

QUARTERMAN

P. C.—CATAWBA

Presbyterian gave a great exhibition of defensive and offensive football tactics to win over Catawba, 13-0, in the final game of the season. The game was a fitting climax for a great season.

Only once during the contest did the Indians advance beyond mid-field, so tight was the Hose defense.

In this game, Alex McCulloch, who in his capacity as a blocking back, has rarely handled the pigskin, intercepted a pass and ran it back to the ten-yard line. Bolick scored from that point. The other score came just after the opening whistle as a result of Quarterman's pass to Waldrep on the three-yard line. Quarterman booted the extra point.

This game spelled finis for four P. C. warriors. Redmond, Wilson, Robinson, and Sims donned uniforms for the last time. All but Sims, who was unable to play because of injuries, saw action and gave creditable performances.

The first meet of the year came March 25, against the University of Florida, at Gainesville. The Blue Hose took the Gators on their home track, and, after a meet in which the lead shifted from one team to the other, came racing in first in the relay race, to lead by the score of $67\frac{3}{4}$ to $63\frac{1}{4}$. THE 1933 track season was a resounding success for the Presbyterians. Lonnie McMillian, the czar of track coaches in the State, and "Turk" Osman, supreme ruler of the Carolina cinder path during his three years at P. The next week-end found the Presbyterians taking on the second university, when they defeated the University of South Carolina overwhelmingly, 88-38. Osman, and Underwood, who defeated the 1932 Southern champion in the pole vault, were the outstanding performers for Presbyterian.

Both the freshmen and the varsity defeated Clemson on the following weekend. Clemson showed strength in the field events, while Presbyterian made a clean sweep of three races, Osman leading in all three, taking first, second, and

BOXING

Boxing, as a sport at Presbyterian College, is the work of Coach Walter A. Johnson. For many years he has worked to build it up as a prominent sport here. Although, up to now, he has had many splendid boxers but not yet a winning team, this year shows promise of accomplishing what for so long has been sought.

Captain Bolick, who has shown his leadership in many ways, as well as exceptional skill as a boxer, can be depended upon to lead the team to their best endeavors. Nothing but victories are expected of him, and although he has been in better boxing shape, early practice has shown him to possess the punch and ability that have characterized his boxing career here on the campus.

BOXING

In the heavyweight division, Sims, who was State heavyweight champion last year, will give the team another strong bet for victory in most all their engagements. Seagle, boxing bantamweight, with one year's experience, has clearly shown his speed and ability to mix it up. He possesses a hard punch, and any man who meets him is bound to remember him. Clark is also a veteran on the team, and his presence in the lightweight division makes the followers of the Blue Stocking boxers feel somewhat optimistic for the season.

McClary, Gillis, McCaskill, Mills and Holliday are others, who, fighting for Presbyterian varsity for the first year, round out the team of scrappy fighters, and make the hopes for the season very bright indeed.

With this fine array of boxers, a schedule which will tax the best of them has been arranged. Meets with Carolina, Clemson, The Citadel in the State, and the University of Florida and the University of Georgia, out of the State, are on the program for the season. A return match with Georgia is also scheduled.

WITH THE REVIVAL of general interest in collegiate baseball, which was a direct result of the formation of the South Carolina College Baseball League, P. BASEBALL

Presbyterian has been a member of the South Carolina College League since its organization. The league itself may be said to be a P. C. product. It grew directly out of meetings of State coaches called by Coach Johnson.

Starting out with five members, Carolina, Erskine, Clemson, Newberry, and P. C., the loop now embraces six clubs. Furman came in last season.

With no competition from professional leagues, or from textile leagues during its playing season, the collegiate league has come into favor with the baseball public, and threatens to once again enter the athletic spotlight, where it belongs.

BASEBALL

In this renaissance, P. C. played a leading role. It has been stated that Coach Johnson was behind the movement to organize the college league. But in another way P. C. has given impetus to the back-to-baseball movement. She puts a scrapping club in the race every season, and although never coming close to winning the pennant, strikes fear into the hearts of teams in better standing, with her evident will to win hands down no matter how far advanced the season.

The present season will see a number of sophomores, always an uncertain quantity, take the field faced with the job of successfully filling the shoes left vacant by Adams, McCutchen, Nettles, Ferguson, Montgomery, Bissett, and Tom Howell. Wood (captain), Holcomb, Montgomery, Robinson, and Bolick are the only lettermen returning this season. From a list of reserves and sophomores, including McCrackin, Kemp, Forehand, Morgan, Peterson, Holliday, Horne, Wooten, Coach Johnson was faced with the task of filling vacancies in left field, third base, shortstop, second base, and creating a pitching staff to take over the duties of McCutchen and Nettles, who graduated. Robinson is the only varsity hurler reporting for duty. Galloway, a southpaw who was out last season, may see service, with two sophs, Forehand and Holliday, being depended upon for most of the mound service.

BASKET-BALL

The 1934 basket-ball team will go down in P. C.'s athletic book of memories as a prize hard-luck aggregation.

Always playing teams of superior height, the Blue Hose hoopsters managed, by sheer skill and determination, to throw frequent scares into their highly-rated opponents by coming within seconds of winning. On many occasions, the Presbyterian team lost the game in the very last minute of play. But they were not to be beat out of all their games and therefore managed to win a small part of the schedule.

The courtmen did not get off to an auspicious start. Several games were lost before the Blue Stockings seemed to get the range of the basket. They were getting their share of the shots but it seemed as though they couldn't sink them.

BASKET-BALL

When once located, however, points began to drop through the net with a regularity that made the second part of the season a big success over the first part.

Then along at the end of the season the team began to really play basket-ball. Every game was decided by one or two points. The games kept the spectators continually on edge as they were stuffed full of exciting play.

Newberry and the College of Charleston furnished P. C. with its most exciting victories. The Charleston game went into five periods before it was finally won, 45 to 40. The Newberry game saw the Blue Hose open up a not-to-be-denied second-half assault which left the Indians at the post.

TENNIS

In its 1933 season, the tennis team chalked up wins over Clemson and Newberry, and played close, hard matches with the other teams in the State.

Elmore Gregg and "Red" Copeland, and the two McCutchens, played in the doubles as well as in singles. W. P. Ransom made the fifth man on the team.

Of these only Ransom and Johnson McCutchen are gone. No doubt they will be missed, but there are a number of sophomores to take their places. Levi, Estes, Morgan, Normont, and Frances Gregg, are the new men that will be out for a place on the team.

With the material on hand, the college should produce one of its strongest teams.

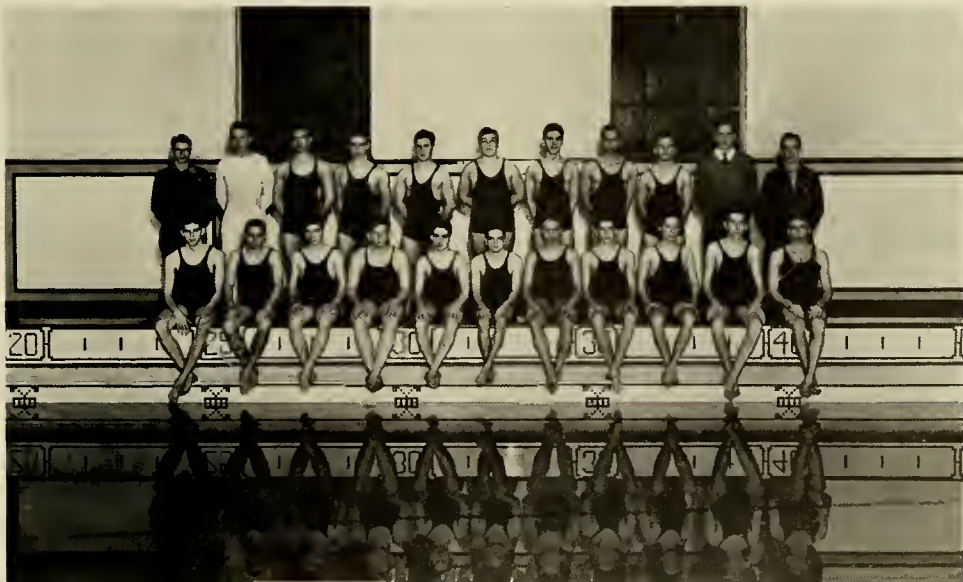

Tennis Squad

SWIMMING

Its first season passed and a State champion freshman squad now ready to splash swiftly for the varsity; the swimming team faces its rivals with real talent.

Captain McFadden dives and swims the dashes; Wilson and Wooten specialize in the sprints; Morrow goes in for the distance swims; Powell Freeman works on the breaststroke; while Valley takes care of the backstroke. Every man on the team swims in one of the relays.

The freshmen, composed of Legare, Ed Montgomery, Kendall, Alexander, and the Wallace brothers, hope to equal the record set by last year's freshman team.
